2. Agreement

This agreement applies to nonpublic information shared in connection with a photography, video, fashion, or creative project with Michael Ivory Photography LLC ("Photographer"). Confidential information includes unreleased images and video, concepts, designs, garments, schedules, locations, client or participant details, and production materials.

The signer will use confidential information only to participate in or support the project and will not photograph, copy, publish, post, forward, or disclose it without the Photographer's prior written permission. These duties do not apply to information already public through no breach, independently created without use of confidential information, or disclosed as legally required. If legally permitted, the signer will give the Photographer notice before a required disclosure.

These duties continue for two years from the date signed. The Photographer retains all rights to photographs and video the Photographer creates. This agreement does not grant permission to use any image or recording; a separate photo/video release is required. Nothing here restricts rights that cannot legally be waived.
